HB 752 Original 2024 Regular Session Carrier

Abstract: Provides relative to the salary requirement for membership in the Sheriffs' Pension and Relief Fund (fund).

Present law provides that each sheriff is member of the fund. Provides that each deputy sheriff becomes a member if he is at least 18 years old and meets a minimum monthly salary threshold. Provides that state supplemental pay is included in the determination of a deputy's salary.

Present law provides various minimum monthly salary thresholds which are applicable based on the date the person was employed. Provides that the threshold is $1,000 for those employed subsequent to Dec. 31, 2012.

Proposed law provides that the threshold is $1,250 for those employed subsequent to June 30, 2024.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
