DIGEST
2024 Regular Session

Owen

Present law provides that certain items in the personnel records of a public employee of any public body are confidential: the home telephone number of the public employee where the employee has chosen to have a private or unlisted home telephone number because of the nature of his occupation with the body; the home telephone number and address of the public employee where the employee has requested that the number be confidential; and the name and account number of any financial institution to which the employee's wages or salary are directly deposited by an electronic direct deposit payroll system or other direct deposit payroll system.

Proposed law retains present law and further provides for the confidentiality of the public employee's cell phone number and personal email address or addresses if requested to be confidential.

Effective August 1, 2024.
