SB 146 Engrossed

DIGEST
2024 Regular Session

Luneau

Present law provides for the authority of the legislative auditor to examine, audit, inspect or copy all books, accounts, papers, documents, records, files, instruments, films, tapes, and any other formats of records, including confidential items, with the qualification that the legislative auditor shall comply with any and all restrictions imposed by law on documents, data, or information deemed confidential by law and furnished to the legislative auditor.

Proposed law retains present law and further provides that the legislative auditor shall also have authority to examine, audit, inspect or copy documents, data, or information deemed privileged, except for records subject to an evidentiary privilege as provided for in the Code of Evidence or where the legislative auditor's access to such records is expressly prohibited by law.

Effective August 1, 2024.
