HB 105 Engrossed 2024 Regular Session Tarver

Abstract: Provides for an ethics code exception to allow a public servant and related persons to obtain advertisements from his governmental entity subject to specified conditions.

Present law (Code of Governmental Ethics - R.S. 42:1113) generally prohibits a public servant, a member of his immediate family, or a legal entity in which he has a specified interest from bidding on or entering into any contract, subcontract, or other transaction that is under the supervision or jurisdiction of the public servant’s agency or governmental entity. Present law (R.S. 42:1112) further prohibits a public servant from participating in a transaction in which he, his immediately family members, and specified other persons and entities have a substantial economic interest of which he maybe reasonably expected to know involving the governmental entity. Present law provides certain exceptions.

Proposed law adds an exception to allow a public servant, his immediate family, and related legal entities to provide an agency of the governmental entity of the public servant a thing of economic value to obtain advertisements featuring the public servant, immediate family member, or a legal entity if the public servant recuses or disqualifies himself on all matters involving the transaction, if applicable; the terms and conditions of the transaction are the same as or substantially similar to those available to similarly situated persons who are not public servants or related persons; and the transaction is conducted without preference and in the same manner and subject to the same requirements and conditions applicable to the general public.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
