Provides relative to expungement of criminal records

Current law provides for expungement of criminal records under certain circumstances. Proposed law provides that notwithstanding any other provisions related to expungements, the court may order an immediate expungement of a person otherwise eligible for an expungement upon successful completion of a court-ordered probation or alternative sentencing program.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

The proposed law permits the court to order an immediate expungement of a person otherwise eligible for an expungement upon the successful completion of a court-ordered probation or alternative sentencing program. Because the proposed law does not provide the definition, procedure, or whether any part of the existing expungement process will be eliminated with an immediate expungement, there is no anticipated fiscal impact as to workload related to processing of expungements.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
