HB 334 Reengrossed

2024 Regular Session

Amedee

Abstract: Authorizes schools boards to provide for chaplains to serve in public schools as employees or on a volunteer basis.

Proposed law authorizes school boards to provide for the service of school chaplains as employees or volunteers; provides that participation in a chaplain's programs or services is optional; subjects chaplains to all present law relative to criminal history of school employees and volunteers; and requires school boards with chaplains to adopt policies for proposed law implementation.
