HOUSE BILL NO. 784

BY REPRESENTATIVES SCHAMERHORN, BOURRIAQUE, EGAN, FIRMENT, FISHER, GADBERRY, HORTON, TRAVIS JOHNSON, LAFLEUR, JACOB LANDRY, MACK, MCMAHEN, ORGERON, OWEN, ROMERO, SELDERS, TAYLOR, THOMPSON, TURNER, VENTRELLA, AND WALTERS

LIABILITY/CIVIL: Provides relative to liability for damages caused by livestock

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact Civil Code Article 2321, relative to liability for damages caused by
3 livestock; to provide for strict liability under certain circumstances; to provide for
4 exceptions; and to provide for related matters.

5 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

6 Section 1. Civil Code Article 2321 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as 7 follows:

8 Art. 2321. Damage caused by animals; livestock

9 A. The owner of an animal, including livestock, is answerable for the 10 damage caused by the animal. However, he is answerable for the damage only upon
11 a showing that he knew or, in the exercise of reasonable care, should have known 12 that his animal's behavior would cause damage, that the damage could have been 13 prevented by the exercise of reasonable care, and that he failed to exercise such 14 reasonable care.

15 B. Nonetheless, the owner of a dog is strictly liable for damages for injuries
16 to persons or property caused by the dog and which the owner could have prevented
17 and which did not result from the injured person's provocation of the dog.

18 C. The owner of livestock is liable for damages for injuries to persons or 19 property caused by the livestock that escape an enclosure and the owner could have 20 prevented by an exercise of reasonable care. The owner of livestock is not liable for

- 1 damages for injuries to person or property for livestock that escape an enclosure due
2 to any of the following:
- 3 (1) A fortuitous event.
4 (2) No fault of the owner.
5 (3) Third-party provocation of the livestock.
- 6 D. Nothing in this Article shall preclude the court from the application of the 7 doctrine of res ipsa loquitur in an appropriate case.

HB 784 Reengrossed

2024 Regular Session

Schamerhorn

Abstract: Provides for liability for damages caused by livestock that escape an enclosure.

Present law provides that the owner of an animal is answerable for the damages caused by an animal upon showing that he knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known that the animal would cause damage.

Proposed law extends present law to include livestock.

Present law provides that the owner of a dog is liable for injuries caused by the dog which the owner could have prevented and which did not result from provocation of the dog.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law provides that the owner of livestock is not liable for damages for injuries to person or property for livestock that escape an enclosure due to a fortuitous event, no fault of the owner, or third-party provocation of the livestock.

(Amends C.C. Art. 2321)
