4 AMENDMENT NO. 2

5 On page 1, delete lines 11 through 14, and insert the following:

6 "A. A public school shall not disqualify a student from participating in 7 extracurricular activities or interscholastic athletics solely because the student is 8 enrolled in an approved home study program, so long as the student lives in the 9 attendance zone of the public school.

10 (1) A student who is enrolled in an approved home study program shall try 11 out or apply for a extracurricular activities or interscholastic athletics at the public 12 school in the same manner, time, and place as the students who attend the public 13 school.

14 (2) After the try out or application, should the approved home study student 15 meet the qualifications for an extracurricular activities club or an interscholastic 16 athletics team, the approved home study student shall be required to maintain all 17 requirements for participation that a public school student would have to meet in 18 order to participate in the extracurricular activity or the interscholastic athletics 19 activity, including but not limited to maintaining a minimum grade point average and 20 complying with disciplinary standards. Failure to meet the requirements with 21 respect to a minimum grade point average or failure to adhere to the disciplinary 22 standards shall be grounds for the school to remove the approved home study student 23 from participation in the extracurricular activities club or the interscholastic athletics 24 team.

25 B. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, no public school may be 26 a member of, or participate in any competition sponsored by any interscholastic 27 extracurricular athletic association or organization that denies eligibility to a student 28 solely on the basis of the student's enrollment in an approved home study program."
