EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

An East Baton Parish Clerk of Court official indicated that this bill would not materially impact Clerk expenditures as the requirements of the bill can be handled using existing supplies and staff. Also, other 19th JDC staff did not indicate any additional expenditures as a result of this bill.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.

According to an official with the Louisiana Department of Revenue, the tax deductions available for the jurors will not have an impact on state revenues because the bill does not create a state tax deduction, but rather requires that the Clerk inform the jurors about existing federal charitable donation deductions.

Although CASA is not a governmental entity, we wanted to provide the following as supplemental information in the fiscal note: An official with CASA estimated that this measure, as a pilot program, could generate approximately $2,000.
