

HOUSE SUMMARY OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

HB 753

2024 Regular Session

Deshotel

PLUMBERS: Provides relative to licensure of plumbers

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Provides that the plumbing inspector appointed to the State Plumbing Board shall be from a list of three names submitted by the La. Uniform Construction Code Council instead of the La. Dept. of Health.
2. Changes the term "residential plumber" to "residential plumber limited".
3. Makes technical changes.

Present law (R.S. 37:1361(B)) creates the State Plumbing Board (board) and provides for nominations and appointments of members, including one engineer, one plumbing inspector, three master plumbers, three journeyman plumbers, and one tradesman plumber.

Proposed law retains present law in part and provides that the board should be comprised of the following:

- (1) One registered mechanical engineer from a list submitted by La. Dept. of Health.
- (2) One plumbing inspector from a list submitted by La. State Uniform Construction Code Council.
- (3) Three master plumbers from a list submitted by La. Assoc. of Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Contractors.
- (4) Three journeymen plumbers from a list submitted by the La. Pipe Trades Assoc. or its successor.
- (5) One residential plumber limited by the governor.
- (6) One member of the public from a list submitted by the speaker of the House of Representatives.
- (7) One member of the public from a list submitted by the president of the Senate.

Proposed law (R.S. 37:1361(E)) changes the quorum of the board from five to six.

Present law (R.S. 37:1366(A)(1) and (L)) provides that any person engaged in the duties of a tradesman plumber shall possess a tradesman plumber limited license. Present law further requires the board to assist the Board of Supervisors of Community and Technical Colleges in developing training for the tradesman plumber limited license.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumber limited license to residential plumber limited license.

Present law (R.S. 37:1367(A)(1)) prohibits a natural person from engaging in the work of a tradesman plumber without a license. Present law further provides that a tradesman plumber may independently repair existing plumbing of one- and two-family dwellings without supervision.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumber limited license to residential plumber limited license. Proposed law further provides that a residential plumber limited may independently install, alter, repair, and maintain plumbing in one- and two-family dwellings without supervision.

Present law (R.S. 37:1368(A)(1)) requires the board to issue a tradesman plumber limited license to any person who meets the certain qualifications.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumber limited license to residential plumber limited license.

Present law (R.S. 37:1371(A)(1)) allows the board to fix and charge reasonable examination, licensing, and renewal fees for tradesman plumbers.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumbers to residential plumber limited.

Present law (R.S. 37:1373(A)) allows the board to enjoin any person from engaging in doing the work of a tradesman plumber.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumber to residential plumber limited.

Present law (R.S. 37:1377(B)(1)) defines "journeyman plumber" as a person who possesses the necessary qualifications and knowledge to install, alter, or repair plumbing systems.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that a journeyman plumber possesses the necessary qualifications to maintain plumbing systems.

Present law (R.S. 37:1377(B)(2)) defines "tradesman plumber" as a natural person who possesses the necessary qualifications and knowledge to repair existing plumbing systems.

Proposed law changes "tradesman plumber" to "residential plumber limited" and provides that a residential plumber limited is a natural person who possesses the necessary qualifications and knowledge to install, alter, repair, and maintain plumbing systems.

Present law (R.S. 37:1378(A)(3), (6), and (8)) provides for certain disciplinary actions of tradesman plumbers.

Proposed law retains present law and changes tradesman plumbers to residential plumbers limited.

(Amends R.S. 37:1361(B) and (E), 1366(A)(1) and (L), 1367(A)(1), 1368(A)(1)(intro. para.), 1371(A)(1), 1373(A), 1377(B), and 1378(A)(3), (6), and (8))