Requires an adjudicated child to be offered education services, vocational training, and counseling. (8/1/24)

Current law provides for academic plans for children committed to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections (DPS&C); requires DPS&C to submit the individualized education plan or individualized learning plan to a court within 45 days of the child’s admission to the secure care facility and that a copy be provided to the parents or guardian of the child, the district attorney, and counsel for the child at the time it is submitted to the court; requires a child’s individualized learning plan include vocational training; requires, at least six months prior to the release of the child, DPS&C to prepare a written, individualized, and thorough transitional plan developed in collaboration with the child and any agency or department assuming his custody, care, or responsibility; requires the transitional plan to address the needs of the child, including but not limited to education, health, permanent connections, living arrangements, independent living skills, and employment. Proposed law adds the requirement that the transitional plan include vocational training and that the services included within the transitional plan be offered to the child.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

The proposed law requires a juvenile’s transitional plan to address vocational training. The LFO presumes that any additional workload within the Office of Juvenile Justice associated with a juvenile’s transitional plan, including vocational training, can be absorbed using existing staff and resources.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
