DIGEST 2024 Regular Session

Miguez

Present law provides any record of the office of the governor pertaining to the schedule of the governor, his spouse, or his child that contains security details that if made public may impair the safety of the governor, his spouse, or his child may be held confidential for a period not to exceed seven days following the scheduled event.

Present law further provides that nothing shall be interpreted or construed in a manner to make confidential all records concerning a meeting or event that the governor attends and transportation related thereto and that the governor may keep a record concerning a meeting or event that the governor attends and transportation thereto privileged for a period not to exceed seven days after the occurrence of the meeting or event.

Proposed law removes the provision of present law that limits holding records related to the schedule of the governor or his spouse or child confidential to a period of seven days but otherwise retains present law.

Effective August 1, 2024.
