

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

HR 75

2024 Regular Session

Beaulieu

Existing House Rule provides procedures for prefiling legislative instruments and requires that a request for legislation that is to be prefiled be received by House Legislative Services staff (HLS) not later than a certain time prior to the prefiling deadline applicable to the instrument being requested.

Prior House Rule required that a request be received not later than 48 hours prior to the prefiling deadline applicable to the legislative instrument being requested.

Prior House Rule required that during a regular session, a request for legislation that is to be introduced on the last day for introduction of matters having the effect of law be received by HLS not later than 6:00 p.m. on the day prior to the last day for introduction.

New House Rule requires instead that a request for legislation that is to be prefiled for consideration during a regular session be received by HLS not later than 72 hours prior to the prefiling deadline applicable to the instrument being requested, and that during a regular session, a request for legislation that is to be introduced on the last day for introduction of matters having the effect of law shall be received by HLS not later than 72 hours prior to the deadline for introduction.

Effective April 17, 2024.

(Amends House Rule 7.6(A)(3); Repeals House Rule 7.2(F))
