HB 113 Original

2025 Regular Session

Wyble

Abstract: Provides for the sale or consumption of high or low alcohol content beverages in Washington Parish.

Present law provides for the statewide regulation of the sale of high and low alcoholic beverages.

Present law provides for the local option election by local political subdivisions relative to the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Proposed law authorizes, subject to the statewide regulations but not subject to the local option elections, the governing authorities of Washington Parish and any municipality within Washington Parish to regulate but not prohibit the sale or consumption of high or low alcohol content beverages in Washington Parish.
