Abstract: Eliminates the requirement that a non-gaming supplier obtain a permit when doing business with casino operators.

Present law provides that a non-gaming supplier may be required by the La. Gaming Control Board to be found suitable or obtain a non-gaming supplier permit when providing non-gaming goods or services to a casino gaming operator or sports wagering operator.

Proposed law removes the provisions applicable to the non-gaming supplier permit and retains present law regarding the finding of suitability.

Proposed law provides that no gaming operator licensee shall contract for goods or services with any employee who holds a key-gaming employee permit.
