4 §962. Court reporters for ~~the~~ First Judicial District

5 * * *

6 H. As compensation, each court reporter shall be paid a salary from the fund 7 hereinafter created of not less than one thousand seventy-five dollars per month, and 8 such additional amounts as are determined by a majority of the judges; plus an 9 amount ~~to be determined by a majority of the judges~~ at the rate established pursuant
10 to R.S. 13:961 for each thirty-one-line page and for each copied page of all testimony
11 reported and transcribed in all cases, said salary to be paid monthly and other 12 compensation as submitted for payment. The length of the transcript page may be 13 changed from thirty-one lines to twenty-five lines at the discretion of a majority of 14 the court. All recording and transcribing machines, typewriters, supplies, and extra 15 help shall be paid by such court reporters personally. Additional compensation, 16 recording and transcribing machines, supplies, and extra help may be provided to the 17 court reporters for work in criminal court as required and as ordered by the majority 18 of the judges, the cost thereof to be paid from the criminal court fund, or indigent 19 defender fund, any other available fund, or as otherwise provided by law and as 20 ordered by a majority of the judges.

21 * * *

22 §963. Court reporters for Thirteenth Judicial District

23 I.(1)(a) In all civil cases, a fee ~~of two dollars and twenty-five cents per page~~
24 ~~and twenty-five cents per copy of each page reported and transcribed~~ at the rate
25 established pursuant to R.S. 13:961 shall be charged by and paid to each court

27 (b) In criminal cases, a fee ~~not to exceed two dollars per page and twenty-~~ 28 ~~five cents per copy of each page reported and transcribed~~ at the rate established

1 copy shall be furnished in cases appealable to the court of appeals; in cases
 2 appealable to the supreme court the original and three copies shall be furnished. The 3 payment shall be made monthly to the court reporters upon presentation of an 4 itemized statement of the costs approved by any of the judges of the district. The 5 payments to be made by the governing authority under the foregoing provisions shall 6 not exceed the gross sum of fifteen hundred dollars for any one year to each of the 7 court reporters.

8 * * *

9 C. All judgments rendered in cases, in which the party availing himself of 10 the provisions of ~~R.S. 13:4525 through 13:4529~~ R.S. 13:4529 shall be cast for costs, 11 together with a statement of such costs shall be recorded by the clerk of court in the 12 mortgage records of the parish of East Baton Rouge. Such judgments when recorded
 13 shall operate as a judicial mortgage in favor of the governing authority of East Baton
 14 Rouge parish for the amount of costs paid to the court reporters. The governing 15 authority of East Baton Rouge parish, at its expense, may have this judgment and 16 statement of costs (or a certified copy thereof) recorded in the mortgage records of 17 any other parish or parishes, and when recorded the judgment shall operate as a 18 judicial mortgage in favor of the governing authority of East Baton Rouge parish for 19 the amount of costs paid.

20 * * *

21 §967. Twenty-Fourth Judicial District; court reporters; civil filing fees

22 * * *

23 C.(1) In all cases on appeal, the reporter shall be paid a fee ~~not to exceed two~~ 24 ~~dollars and fifty cents for each original page transcribed~~ at the rate established
 25 pursuant to R.S. 13:961 and, when a copy is requested by a litigant, shall furnish 26 such copy and be paid a fee not to exceed ~~one dollar for each page thereof~~ the rate
 27 established pursuant to R.S. 13:961, except that in criminal cases on appeal by 28 indigent defendants, no more than a ~~total of two dollars and seventy-five cents for~~ 29 ~~each page transcribed~~ the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961, including all

1 copies necessary for appeal, shall be charged to and paid from any fund established
 2 by law for the payment of expenses incurred in the defense of indigent persons in 3 criminal proceedings. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to make the 4 governing authority of the parish of Jefferson responsible for the expenses or costs
 5 associated with the preparation of transcripts for an indigent defendant in a criminal
 6 proceeding, including but not limited to bills of exceptions, trials, motions, hearings
 7 on writs, or any other costs associated with an appeal in a criminal proceeding.

* * *

9 §969. Court reporters for ~~the~~ Twenty-Ninth Judicial District Court

* * *

11 G. In all civil cases, a fee ~~determined by a majority of the judges en banc for~~ 12 ~~each original page and for each copied page of testimony, which fee shall not exceed~~ 13 ~~two dollars and seventy-five cents for each thirty-two-line page and a fee not to~~ 14 ~~exceed twenty-five cents per copy per page of transcribed testimony~~ at the rate
 15 established pursuant to R.S. 13:961, shall be charged by and paid to the court
 16 reporter for reports and for transcribing the testimony which shall be retained by him 17 as compensation in addition to the salary as provided herein, and shall be taxed as 18 costs of the suit in which the testimony is taken to be collected by the clerk of court,
 19 except in pauper cases; payment of the fees shall be made primarily by the appellant
 20 immediately upon the transcription of the evidence, and the court reporter shall not 21 be required to file the transcript with the clerk of court before payment. Should the 22 appellant fail or refuse to make such payment, the appellee or any other party to the 23 suit may make the same and have it assessed as cost. Even though counsel may 24 attempt to procure a transcript of the entire record by alleging that the entire record 25 is necessary to support a motion for a new trial, the trial judge shall not order the 26 entire transcript to be typed unless he deems it indispensable to the record of the 27 motion or proceedings.

* * *

1 I. The court reporters shall record such criminal proceedings as may be 2 required by law or as ordered by the court. No fee shall be charged for taking 3 evidence on assignments of error, motions, or other pleadings in criminal cases, 4 unless approved by the presiding judge. In all criminal cases where a transcript is 5 required by law, a fee ~~determined by a majority of the judges en banc for each~~
 6 ~~original page and each copied page of testimony, which fee shall not exceed two~~ 7 ~~dollars and seventy-five cents for each thirty-two-line page and a fee not to exceed~~ 8 ~~twenty-five cents per copy per page of transcribed testimony~~ at the rate established
 9 pursuant to R.S. 13:961, shall be charged by and paid to the court reporters for 10 reporting and transcribing the testimony which shall be retained by him as 11 compensation in addition to the salary as provided herein. When so approved, any 12 such payment may be made from the criminal court cost fund. In such cases, 13 however, only properly designated portions of the record shall be transcribed.

14 * * *

15 §970. Court reporter for Twenty-sixth Judicial District for Webster Parish

16 * * *

17 L. Additionally, in civil and criminal cases the Webster Parish Police Jury 18 shall be paid ~~two dollars and fifty cents per thirty-one-line legal size page and fifty~~
 19 ~~cents per page~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961 for copies for all
 20 testimony transcribed by the court reporters. This charge shall be taxable as court 21 costs and shall be advanced to the court reporter assigned to the case for delivery to 22 the Webster Parish Police Jury for deposit in the clerk of court reporter's fund.

23 * * *

24 §971. Sixteenth and Twenty-Seventh Judicial Districts; additional court reporters;
 25 fees charged by court reporters; indigent transcript fund

26 * * *

27 B.(1)(a) In the Twenty-Seventh Judicial District, in all civil cases a fee ~~of~~ 28 ~~three dollars and fifty cents per page for the original and fifty cents per page~~ at the 29 rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961 for copies reported and transcribed shall be 30 charged by and paid to the court reporter who reports and transcribes the testimony

1 and shall be retained by him as compensation in addition to the salary as provided 2 herein.

3 * * *

4 (2) In all criminal cases, except those involving indigent defendants, a fee
5 ~~of three dollars and fifty cents per page for the original, and fifty cents for each copy~~
6 ~~thereafter reported and transcribed~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961 7 shall be paid to the court reporter who reports and transcribes the testimony and shall 8 be retained by him as compensation in addition to the salary as provided herein. The 9 payment of fees in criminal cases involving indigent defendants shall be governed
10 by the provisions of R.S. 13:4529.

11 * * *

12 (7) Court reporters shall be paid ~~three dollars and fifty cents per~~ 13 ~~thirty-one line page for such work, and twenty-five cents per page for each copy~~ at 14 the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961, as funds become available, all such 15 payments to be made from the criminal indigent transcript fund by the court.

16 * * *

17 C.(1)(a) In the Sixteenth Judicial District, in all civil cases a fee ~~of two~~ 18 ~~dollars and fifty cents per page for the original and fifty cents per page each for the~~ 19 ~~first and second copies for cases reported and transcribed~~ at the rate established

§972. Court Reporters for ~~the~~ Twenty-Fifth Judicial District

* * *

D.(1) In all cases the reporter shall be paid a fee ~~of two dollars and seventy-five cents for each original thirty-two line page transcribed and, where a copy is requested by a litigant, shall furnish such copy and be paid a fee of twenty-five cents for each page thereof~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961. At the request of any of the parties to any proceedings, or at the order of a district judge, the court reporter shall transcribe all or part of the testimony or other matter taken down and shall furnish as many copies thereof as may be required by law for an appeal. The reporter, except when ordered by the judge, shall not be required to file or furnish any transcribed testimony until the transcription fee is paid. If those parties, or the judge, direct the original transcription, each party shall pay the expense of transcribing the testimony offered by him. No fee shall be allowed for transcribing matter other than testimony, objections and rulings thereon, bills, notes of evidence, and such other matters as may be ordered by the judge. All such fees shall be paid directly to the court reporter performing the service as additional compensation and shall be taxed as costs.

* * *

§975. Court reporters and judges' secretaries for ~~the twenty-third judicial district~~
Twenty-Third Judicial District

* * *

B. In civil cases which are reported and transcribed, a fee ~~of one dollar and twenty-five cents per page~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961 shall be charged by and paid to the reporter. Provided, however, that no additional fee shall be charged for reporting or transcribing civil cases except when ordered for purposes of appeal of a decision of the court or when ordered by the court of appeal.

* * *

§976. Thirty-Second Judicial District; additional court reporters; transcript fees

* * *

1 C. The civil and criminal transcript fee for all court reporters in the Thirty-
 2 Second Judicial District ~~should not exceed two dollars and seventy-five cents per~~
 3 ~~thirty-one-line page and twenty-five cents per page copy~~ shall be set at the rate
 4 established pursuant to R.S. 13:961. These fees shall be charged by and be paid to 5 the court reporter who reported and transcribed the testimony, shall be retained by 6 him as compensation in addition to his salary, and shall be taxed as costs of the suit
 7 in which the testimony is taken.

8 * * *

9 §978. Court reporters for Thirtieth Judicial District

10 * * *

11 H.(1)(a) In all civil cases, a fee ~~of one dollar and fifty cents per page and~~ 12 ~~fifty cents per page additional for the first copy, thirty-five cents per page additional~~ 13 ~~for copies reported and transcribed beyond the first copy~~ at the rate established
 14 pursuant to R.S. 13:961, shall be charged by and paid to the court reporter for reports
 15 and for transcribing the testimony which shall be retained by him as compensation 16 in addition to the salary as provided in this Section, and shall be taxed as costs of the 17 suit in which the testimony is taken to be collected by the clerk of court, except in 18 pauper cases. Payment of the fees shall be made primarily by the plaintiff
 19 immediately upon the transcription of the evidence, and the court reporter shall not 20 be required to file the transcript with the clerk of court before payment.

21 * * *

22 §979. Court reporters for ~~thirty-eighth judicial district~~ Thirty-Eighth Judicial 23 District

24 * * *

25 H. In civil and criminal cases which are reported and transcribed, a fee ~~of~~ 26 ~~two dollars and twenty-five cents per page for originals, and twenty-five cents per~~ 27 ~~page for each copy~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961, shall be charged
 28 by and paid to the reporter. In those civil cases which are reported but not 29 transcribed, one-half of the fee provided herein for originals shall be charged by and 30 paid to the reporter. Such fees shall be retained by the reporter, as compensation in

1 addition to the salary provided for in Subsection G of this Section, and shall be taxed
2 as costs of the suit in which the testimony is taken.

3 * * *

4 §980. Court reporters for ~~the~~ Thirty-Fourth Judicial District

5 * * *

6 D.(1) In all cases on appeal, the reporter shall be paid a fee ~~not to exceed~~ 7 ~~three dollars for each original page transcribed and where a copy is requested by a~~
8 ~~litigant, shall furnish such copy and be paid a fee of one dollar and fifty cents for~~ 9 ~~each page thereof~~ at the rate established pursuant to R.S. 13:961. At the request of 10 any of the party proceedings, or at the order of a district judge, the court reporter 11 shall transcribe all or part of the testimony or other matter taken down and shall 12 furnish as many copies thereof as may be required by law for an appeal. For matters
13 not on appeal, a litigant requesting a transcript of testimony or other matter 14 transcribed shall enter into a private civil contract with the court reporter for the 15 payment of fees applicable to those contracts. Such fees shall be in accordance with 16 fees customarily charged in the judicial district for depositions. The reporter, except 17 when ordered by the judge, shall not be required to file or furnish any transcribed
18 testimony until the transcription fee is paid. If those parties, or the judge, direct the 19 original transcription, each party shall pay the expense of transcribing the testimony
20 offered by him. No fee shall be allowed for transcribing matter other than testimony, 21 objections and rulings thereon, bills, notes of evidence, and such other matters as 22 may be ordered by the judge. All such fees shall be paid directly to the court reporter
23 performing the service as additional compensation and shall be taxed as costs.

2025 Regular Session

Muscarello

Abstract: Provides for a statewide revision of court reporter fees in order to provide for a uniform fee schedule for all judicial district courts.

Present law provides that in all civil and criminal cases a fee not to exceed $1.50 per 31-line page and $.25 per copy reported and transcribed shall be charged by and be paid to the court reporter who reported and transcribed the testimony.

Present law provides for varying court reporter fees for each of the judicial district courts: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 9th, 11th, 13th, 14th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th.

Proposed law repeals present law and provides for a uniform court reporter fee schedule for all judicial district courts by providing that the fee not exceed $5 per 31- or 32-line page transcript and up to $2 per page per certified copy reported and transcribed. Proposed law further provides that fees may be set up to the statutory amount by a majority of the judges.

Proposed law provides that in all criminal indigent cases a fee not to exceed $3.50 per 31- or 32-line page transcript and $1 per page per certified copy reported and transcribed shall be charged by and paid to the court reporter who reported and transcribed the testimony. Proposed law further provides that fees may be set up to the statutory amount by a majority of the judges.

Proposed law provides that the fees shall be retained by the court reporter as compensation, in addition to the salary as provided in present law, and shall be taxed as costs of the case in which such testimony is taken.

Proposed law provides that no fee shall be assessed or collected when providing an electronic copy of a previously transcribed transcript.

Proposed law provides that a salaried court reporter shall not, in any civil or criminal case, charge a sitting fee.

Proposed law provides that when an expedited transcript is requested, the following expedited fees may be charged:

- (1) For transcription within 24 hours, a court reporter may charge two times the allowable per page rate set pursuant to proposed law.
- (2) For transcription within 48 hours, a court reporter may charge an additional $3 per page over the allowable per page rate set pursuant to proposed law.
- (3) For transcription within five days, a court reporter may charge an additional $1 per page over the allowable per page rate set pursuant to proposed law.

Present law (Acts 2017, No. 126; Acts 2018, No. 447; Acts 2020, No. 232; and Acts 2023, No. 52 and No. 228) provides for varying proposed fee increases for various judicial district courts, and each such increase is contingent upon approval by the Judicial Council, which has not been granted.

Proposed law repeals present law.
