DIGEST

SB 183 Original

2025 Regular Session

Morris

Proposed law creates the crime of unlawful accepting of a thing of value by a public servant and makes it a crime for certain public servants and their immediate families to accept a thing of economic value from a nongovernmental organization that receives funds from the public servant's agency. Proposed law also makes it a crime for any person to aid or abet any act prohibited by proposed law.

Proposed law provides definitions relative to proposed law.

Proposed law provides that a person convicted of unlawful accepting of a thing of value by a public servant will be fined between $5,000 and $10,000, or imprisoned, with or without hard labor, between one and five years, or both.

Effective August 1, 2025.
