EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law will have no new fiscal impact on the Louisiana Department of Health (LDH), as this council already exists within LDH. This legislation extends the sunset date by three years, from August 1, 2025, to August 1, 2028. LDH states that all functions of the council are currently being accomplished with existing staff and resources. There are no cost reimbursements or compensation to the members who serve on the council, including per-diems, travel, or salary.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
