EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. While the proposed law authorizes the Attorney General (AG) to maintain a statewide Fugitive Apprehension Unit within its investigation division and appoint and commission special agents that are P.O.S.T. certified peace officers, the AG has advised that it will not be hiring any additional personnel with its enactment. The AG reports the measure clarifies the existing authority of the Louisiana Bureau of Investigations.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
