

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

SR 176

2025 Regular Session

Foil

Recognized the growing retirement security crisis facing American workers, highlighted its contributing factors and consequences, and urged efforts to improve retirement security for all citizens.

Encouraged increased public awareness and financial education initiatives by all retirement systems and employers to empower workers with the knowledge necessary to plan effectively for their retirement.