DIGEST

SB 1 Engrossed

2025 First Extraordinary Session

Kleinpeter

Proposed law changes to certain provisions in the Louisiana Election Code applicable to 2026 spring elections for municipal and ward officers, for candidates in a party primary election for a party primary office, and for other elections held at the same time.

Provides for 2026 calendar year spring primary elections to occur on May 16, 2026, instead of April 18, 2026; and for the spring general election to occur on June 27, 2026, instead of May 30, 2026.

Present law effective January 1, 2026, provides for a spring primary election held April 18, 2026, for municipal and ward officers elected in the spring of a nonpresidential congressional election year and for candidates in a party primary election for a party primary office to be elected in that year.

Proposed law retains these provisions but changes the date for the spring primary election to May 16, 2026, and requires that any contest, proposition, or question scheduled to appear on the April 18, 2026, ballot shall instead appear on the ballot for May 16, 2026. Provides that any contest, proposition, question, or constitutional amendment scheduled to appear on the ballot for the April 18, 2026, election shall instead appear on the ballot for the May 16, 2026, election.

Proposed law provides for a spring general election held on June 27, 2026, for municipal and ward officers and, if necessary, a second party primary for candidates in a party primary election for a party primary office to be elected that year. Any contest, proposition, or question scheduled to appear on the ballot for the May 30, 2026, election.

Proposed law provides that qualifying period for the spring primary election in 2026 and for all candidates for a party primary office to be elected in 2026, and those in any special primary election to be held at the same time, shall open on February 11, 2026.

Proposed law provides that any signature collected on or after September 16, 2025, on a nominating petition for an office that will appear on the ballot for the May 16, 2026, election, shall be considered timely.

Proposed law provides that the number of qualified voters who must timely sign a nominating petition for a candidate for United States representative in Congress for the May 16, 2026, election is 750 from within the state.

Provides that the number of qualified voters who must timely sign a nominating petition for a candidate for United States senator for the May 16, 2026, election is 2,500 from within the state.

Proposed law requires that each committee participating in the election of a candidate for major office in the May 16, 2026, election, excluding a candidate for party primary office, is to file a report as required by R.S. 18:1491.6 no later than November 20, 2025, which shall be complete through the 190th day prior to the May 16, 2026, election. Provides that it is not a violation of Chapter 11 of this Title for a committee to fail to file the report prior to November 20, 2025.

Requires that each candidate for major office in the May 16, 2026, election, excluding a candidate for party primary office, is to file a report as required by R.S. 18:1495.4 no later than November 20, 2025, which shall be complete through the 190th day prior to the May 16, 2026, election. Provides that it is not be a violation of Chapter 11 of this Title for a candidate to fail to file such a report prior to November 20, 2025.

Proposed law provides that candidates required to file a supplemental report by February 15, 2026, pursuant to R.S. 18:1495.4(D)(3)(b) shall instead file the supplemental report by March 2, 2026.

Candidates required to file an annual report by February 15, 2026, pursuant to R.S. 18:1495.4(E) shall instead file the annual report by March 2, 2026.

Proposed law authorizes the secretary of state to may make necessary changes to any rules, regulations, forms, instructions, statements, ballots, nominating petitions, early voting ballot instructions, or absentee by mail ballot envelopes, instructions, certificates, or other balloting paraphernalia to reflect the dates provided for in this Part without approval as otherwise required by R.S. 18:18, 431, 552, or 1306. Authorizes the secretary of state to proceed with emergency rulemaking if necessary to implement the provisions of proposed law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
