HB 153 Original

2026 Regular Session

Mandie Landry

Abstract: Prohibits the referral of a debt for criminal court fines or fees to the office of debt recovery for collection and prohibits the reporting of the debt to a credit bureau or consumer reporting agency.

Present law establishes the office of debt recovery within the Dept. of Revenue. Establishes among the office's powers and duties the authority to recover delinquent debts.

Proposed law retains present law and prohibits the referral for debt collection of criminal fines or fees to the office of debt recovery.

Proposed law prohibits the reporting of a debt for criminal fines and fees to a credit bureau or consumer reporting agency.
