Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law provides that disputes between healthcare providers and employees, employers, or insurers may be submitted to the office of workers' compensation in the same manner as established for dispute resolution of claims for workers' compensation benefits.

Present law retains proposed law and adds that if the dispute is regarding billing, payment, explanation of benefits, reconsideration, or the appropriate amount owed for the provision of medical services that have been rendered, the disputing party will submit the dispute for resolution to the office of workers' compensation's administration's medical services section.

Proposed law provides that the nonprevailing party will pay the cost of the review.

Proposed law provides an appeals process.

Proposed law instructs the assistant secretary to impose a civil fine of at least $1,000 but not more than $5,000 to any workers' compensation payor who does not timely pay medical benefits.

Proposed law further provides that the assistant secretary may assess a fine that does not exceed $500 per day for noncompliance.

Present law provides that the assistant secretary will adopt rules and regulations regarding an electronic system of submission, processing, and payment of workers' compensation-related medical bills.

Present law provides that insurance carriers will accept medical bills electronically submitted by healthcare providers and electronic payment of such bills, and healthcare providers will accept payment of medical claims submitted electronically by insurance carriers.

Proposed law provides that beginning October 1, 2026, claims for medical services rendered will be submitted to a workers' compensation payor in electronic format.

Proposed law requires the assistant secretary to develop and implement a Workers' Compensation Medical Quality and Outcomes Program designed to measure, evaluate, and improve the quality of effectiveness of medical care provided to injured employees.

Present law provides a declaration by the legislature that the people should be aware of all of the exceptions, exemptions, and limitations to the public records law and that such exceptions, exemptions, and limitations should be provided only in present law relative to public records or the Constitution of Louisiana. Proposed law further provides that any exceptions, exemptions, and limitations elsewhere in the law will not have effect. Proposed law further recognizes that there currently exists a number of exceptions, exemptions, and limitations located elsewhere in present law.

Proposed law retains present law and adds proposed law relative to the medical claims database to the list of public records exceptions.
