Provides for the office and duties of the office of the state inspector general. (gov sig)

Present law states that prevention and detection of waste, inefficiency, mismanagement, misconduct, abuse, fraud, and corruption in executive branch agencies are responsibilities of the state. Proposed law retains these purposes and expands policy language to emphasize the executive branch's duty to find efficiencies and optimizations. Proposed law establishes the Inspector General (IG) as the "Chief Integrity Officer", provides for appointment by the governor, provides a six-year term, sets compensation, and provides for vacancy procedures. Proposed law provides that the IG shall retain subpoena authority and judicial oversight. Proposed law retains that the Office of the IG shall have the designation as a law enforcement agency for investigative purposes but reiterates such authority does not include arrest powers. Proposed law provides the IG shall have authority to contract for professional services without public bid. Finally, the proposed law provides that the IG shall submit an annual report to the governor and to the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget (JLCB) at the end of each fiscal year that describes the contributions made by the office regarding the mission of preventing waste, fraud, and abuse.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Proposed law makes various changes within the Office of the Inspector General (IG) to further the office's mission to prevent waste, fraud, and abuse. The office reports it can comply with the proposed measure utilizing existing resources and T.O positions.

Proposed law provides that the IG shall have the authority to contract for professional services without a public bid. LFO cannot determine if the IG will be able to procure and maintain the same services and cost efficiencies within these funding limitations, or possibly require more or fewer resources.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
