Proposed law retains present law.

Present law prohibits a postsecondary education institution from preventing or unduly restricting an intercollegiate athlete from obtaining professional representation. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law requires an intercollegiate athlete who enters into a contract for compensation for the use of his name, image, or likeness with a value of six hundred dollars or more to disclose the contract to the postsecondary education institution in which he is enrolled as a student, in the manner designated by such institution. - (2) Educational workshops and resources, including financial literacy training, life skills education, and resources related to financial responsibility, business formation, and marketing, available to students.
- (3) Information on a compliance point of contact, including identification of an office or individual responsible for administering institutional name, image, and likeness policies and responding to compliance-related inquiries.
