19 §1302. Purpose

20 * * *

21 C.(1) A limited liability company organized as a low-profit limited liability 22 company shall set forth in its articles of organization a business purpose that satisfies 23 and which limited liability company is at all times operated to satisfy each of the 24 following requirements:

1           (a) The entity significantly furthers the accomplishment of one or more 2           charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 170(c)(2)(B) of the 3           Internal Revenue Code and would not have been formed but for the entity's 4           relationship to the accomplishment of charitable or educational purposes.

5           (b) No significant purpose of the entity is the production of income or the 6           appreciation of property provided; however, the fact that an entity produces 7           significant income or capital appreciation shall not, in the absence of other factors,
 8           be conclusive evidence of a significant purpose involving the production of income 9           or the appreciation of property.

10           (c) No purpose of the entity is to accomplish one or more political or 11           legislative purposes within the meaning of Section 170(c)(2)(D) of the Internal 12           Revenue Code.

13           (2) If a company that is organized pursuant to the requirements of Paragraph 14           (1) of this Subsection at its formation at any time ceases to satisfy any one of the 15           requirements, it shall immediately cease to be a low-profit limited liability company, 16           but by continuing to meet all the other requirements of this Chapter, shall continue
 17           to exist as a limited liability company. The name of the company shall be changed 18           to be in conformance with R.S. 12:1306.
