

Urges and requests the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission to study adding revolvers with a cylinder capacity of no more than six cartridges, either single or double action, .44 caliber minimum of a type manufactured prior to 1900 to the list of firearms authorized to use during the special deer hunting season for primitive firearms.