

Prior law created the Boll Weevil Eradication Fund and provides for the disposition of funds.
New law retains prior law.

Prior law requires that all unexpended and unencumbered monies in the fund at the end of each fiscal year remain in the Boll Weevil Eradication Fund.

New law specifies that only unexpended and unencumbered monies received from fees and penalties at the end of each fiscal year remain in the Boll Weevil Eradication Fund.

New law transfers all unexpended and unencumbered monies received from assessments at the end of each fiscal year to the Louisiana Agricultural Finance Authority for boll weevil eradication program expenses.

Prior law authorized the Boll Weevil Eradication Commission to determine the use of monies for boll weevil eradication program expenses.

New law authorizes the commissioner of agriculture to determine the use of monies for boll weevil eradication program expenses.

Effective June 29, 2011.
