HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

BY REPRESENTATIVES FOIL AND HUNTER

CONSTITUTION/CONVENTION: Creates a commission to study the feasibility of a constitutional convention and make recommendations relative thereto

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 To create and establish the Constitutional Convention Study Commission to undertake all 3 necessary study to examine the feasibility and advisability of calling a convention
4 to revise the Constitution of Louisiana and, if a convention is found to be feasible
5 and advisable, to make recommendations to the legislature for calling such a 6 convention, including a plan for the conduct of an effective constitutional 7 convention.

8 WHEREAS, at twelve midnight on December 31, 1974, the Constitution of the state
9 of Louisiana of 1974 became effective, culminating a remarkable effort to provide the state 10 with a completely new constitution that today is recognized as having made landmark 11 changes; namely, shortening the state's constitution from two hundred fifty-five thousand 12 words to a mere thirty-five thousand words, providing for a dramatic reorganization of the 13 executive branch of state government, making very significant changes in local government 14 and in home rule government in particular, taking steps to strengthen the legislature, and 15 removing many detailed provisions which had precluded legislative action without an 16 accompanying constitutional amendment; and

17 WHEREAS, in the ensuing thirty-nine years, however, the constitution has been 18 amended one hundred seventy-five times, and as a result, today the document contains, not 19 only the problematic provisions which the 1973 convention found itself unable or unwilling 20 to address, but additional provisions that protect narrow interests from legislative action

1 despite changing times and needs and that tie the hands of the legislature in its efforts to 2 effect significant reforms; and

3 WHEREAS, various authorities have suggested the need for Louisiana to address a 4 number of policy areas that would require constitutional change, including such matters as 5 the state's tax structure and budgetary practices, dedication of state revenues and the 6 resulting inability of the legislature to allocate tax resources where needed, as well as fiscal 7 restraints on local governments that dramatically limit their authority to meet fiscal and 8 budgetary demands; and

9 WHEREAS, as was the case in 1973, Louisiana once again faces the need for a 10 serious analysis of its basic law, and it must determine whether a constitutional convention
11 is needed and would be the most effective approach to: conducting a genuine examination 12 of the state's critical needs, undertaking an in-depth discussion of reform concepts, crafting 13 provisions that allow for flexibility and innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the 14 present and the future, and challenging Louisiana's voters to accept constructive change; and

15 WHEREAS, prior to calling a constitutional convention, it would be wise to 16 undertake appropriate study and analysis to enable effective decisions concerning details of 17 convention composition, organization, procedure, staffing, and other resources.

18 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 19 create and establish the Constitutional Convention Study Commission to undertake all study 20 and analysis necessary for a complete examination of the feasibility and advisability of
