EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation will decrease the self-generated revenues of the Louisiana State Licensing Board of Contractors (LSLBC) by an indeterminable amount since this bill restores the $7,500 threshold for home improvement contractors to require registration with the LSLBC. Act 193 of the 2012 Regular Legislative Session changed the threshold for home improvement contracting from $7,500 to $1,500, effective August 1, 2012. The LSLBC is currently showing an increase in home improvement registrations over the prior calendar year. Registration fees are $75 annually and total revenues from these fees in 2011 were $86,061 and $106,939 in 2012. The impact of this bill to the LSLBC is indeterminable since Act 193 has only been in effect for 8 months and it is not known how many of these registrations involve contractors performing work in excess of $1,500 but below $7,500.
