HB No. 286

Abstract: Provides with respect to the nominating committee of the board of commissioners of the Southeast La. Flood Protection Authorities.

Present law names the secretary of state as custodian of the records of the nominating committee. In the absence of the nominating committee chairman, the secretary of state shall call the meeting of the nominating committee of which the secretary of state or his designee shall serve as secretary.

Proposed law amends present law to remove the secretary of state from the nominating committee in any capacity. Specifies that the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall be custodian of the records of the nominating committee.

Proposed law requires the commissioners of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority to call the meeting of the nominating committee.

Present law requires the governor to advise the secretary of state of the vacancies on a board within 10 days after the effective date of present law. Within 10 days after the occurrence of a vacancy on a board, the authority shall advise the secretary of state of the vacancy. Within 14 days after being advised of the occurrence of a vacancy on a board, the secretary of state shall publish notice of the vacancy in the official journal of the state and of each parish within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority.

Proposed law amends present law by removing the requirement that the governor advise the secretary of state of the vacancies on a board. The authority is no longer required to advise the secretary of state of the vacancy.

Proposed law requires the flood protection authority to advise the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority in the event of a vacancy on the flood authority within 10 days of such vacancy.

Proposed law requires the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority to publish notice of the vacancy in the official journal of the state and of each parish within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority within 14 days of the occurrence of a vacancy.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
