HB No. 131

Abstract: Requires legislation relative to tax rebates, tax incentives, and tax abatements to be introduced or considered by the legislature only in sessions commencing in odd-numbered years when other tax matters are introduced and considered.

Present constitution prohibits the introduction or enactment of any measure levying or authorizing a new tax or increasing an existing tax by the state or by any statewide political subdivision, or legislating with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions, or credits during a regular session held in an even-numbered year.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution but adds rebates, tax incentives, and tax abatements to the list of measures prohibited from being introduced or considered during a regular session convening in an even-numbered year.

Present constitution provides that during any session convening in an odd-numbered year, no matter shall be introduced or considered unless its object is to enact the General Appropriation Bill or the comprehensive capital budget, to make an appropriation, levy or authorize a new tax, increase an existing tax, levy, authorize, increase, decrease, or repeal a fee, dedicate revenue, legislate with regard to tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions, reductions, repeals, or credits, or legislate with regard to the issuance of bonds.

Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution but adds rebates, tax incentives, and tax abatements to the list of measures which may be introduced or considered during a regular session convening in an odd-numbered year.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held Nov. 4, 2014.

(Amends Const. Art. III, §2(A)(3)(b) and (4)(b)(intro. para.))
