Louisiana residents sixty years of age or older and for planning, monitoring, coordination, and delivery of services to the elderly of the state, including but not limited to coordination of services of all state agencies serving the elderly and requiring reports from them; developing a plan for efficient coordination of functions and services for the elderly and for consolidation of such functions and services within the department with local administration by the parish voluntary councils on aging; administration of the Older Americans Act and related programs; administration of all federal funds appropriated, allocated, or otherwise made available to the state for services to the elderly, except funds for programs administered by other state departments or agencies as specified by the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; exercising functions relative to nutrition programs for the elderly and handicapped citizens of Louisiana, homemaker services, home repair and maintenance services, employment and training services, recreational and transportation services, counseling, information and referral services, protective services as provided in R.S. 15:1501 et seq., and health-related outreach, but excluding the transportation program for the elderly and the handicapped administered by the Department of Transportation and Development under Section 16(b)(2) of the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964 as amended and other such programs and services assigned to other departments of state government as provided in Title 36 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; collection of facts and statistics and making special studies of conditions pertaining to the employment, health, financial status, recreation, social adjustment, or other conditions affecting the welfare of the aged; keeping abreast of the latest developments in aging throughout the nation and interpreting such findings to the public; providing for a mutual exchange of ideas and information on national, state, and local levels; and making recommendations to the governor and to the legislature for needed improvements and additional resources to promote the welfare of the aging in the state.

C. The Department of Elderly Affairs shall be composed of the executive office of the secretary, the office of management and finance, and such other offices as shall be created by law. Whenever the secretary determines that the administration of the functions of the department may be more efficiently performed by eliminating, merging, or consolidating existing offices or establishing new offices, he shall present a plan therefor to the legislature for its approval by statute.
§152. Officers of the department; compensation for one office only
A. The officers of the department shall be the secretary, the undersecretary, and the deputy secretary if a deputy secretary is appointed, each of whom shall be selected and shall perform functions as provided in this Title.
B. No person serving as a secretary, deputy secretary, or undersecretary shall receive any additional salary from the state other than that salary which he receives by virtue of serving in any one of such offices. Any statewide elected official appointed to serve as a secretary, deputy secretary, or undersecretary shall not receive any additional salary from the state other than that salary which he receives as a statewide elected official.
C. Notwithstanding any provision of this Section to the contrary, subject to approval of the governor, any person, including any statewide elected official, serving or appointed to serve as a secretary, undersecretary, or deputy secretary may receive additional compensation for part-time services rendered as an instructor in postsecondary educational institutions or as a member of the National Guard.
§153. Secretary of elderly affairs
There shall be a secretary of the Department of Elderly Affairs, who shall be appointed by the governor with consent of the Senate from recommendations for appointment by the Louisiana Executive Board on Aging, and who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor at a salary fixed by the governor, which salary shall not exceed the amount approved for such position by the legislature while in session.
The secretary shall serve as the executive head and chief administrative officer of the Department of Elderly Affairs and shall have the responsibility for the policies of the department except as otherwise provided by this Title, and for the admit	inistration, control, and operation of the functions, programs, and affairs of the de	epartment;

provided that the secretary shall perform his functions under the general c	control and supervision of the governor.
§154. Powers and duties of secretary of elderly affairs
A. In addition to the functions, powers, and duties otherwise ve	sted in the secretary by law, he shall:
(1) Represent the public interest in the administration of this C	hapter and shall be responsible to the governor, the legislature, and the public there	for.
(2) Determine the policies of the department, except as otherwise	e provided by this Title.
(3) In accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, m	ake, alter, amend, and promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the administra	ntion of the functions of the department, except as otherwise provided by this Title.	The rules and policies of the Office of Elderly Affairs in effect on the effective d	late of this Paragraph shall remain in effect as rules of the Department of Elderly A	Affairs and such rules shall remain in effect subject to their own provisions until c	changed as provided in this Paragraph.
(4) Organize, plan, supervise, direct, administer, execute, and be r	esponsible for the functions and programs vested in the department, in the manner	and to the extent provided by this Title.
(5) Advise the governor on problems concerning the administra	tion of the department.
(6) Act as the sole agent of the state or, in necessary cases, design	nate one of the officers within the department to cooperate with the federal government	nt and with other state and local agencies in matters of mutual concern and in the adm	inistration
of federal funds granted to the state or directly to the department or an off	ice thereof to aid in the furtherance of any function of the department and its office	s. For this purpose he may take such actions, in accordance with applicable state law	, necessary to meet such federal standards as are established for the administration and use of such federal funds, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Title or by the constitution and laws of this state.

(7) Make and publish an annual report to the governor and the legislature concerning the operations of the department and submit with each report such recommendations as he deems necessary for the more effective internal structure and administration of the department and make other reports and recommendations on his own initiative or upon request of the governor, the legislature, or any committee or member thereof.

(8) Provide for the ongoing merger and consolidation of the agencies and functions transferred to his department and submit a report thereon to the governor and the legislature, which report shall accompany the budget request which he submits under provisions of R.S. 39:33. Such report shall include a statement of the goals of the department and of the programs thereof and shall summarize the accomplishments of the department in meeting such goals and implementing such programs. The report shall also contain a specific statement of the reorganization and consolidation plan for the department for the next year and shall include a report on the implementation of such reorganization and consolidation plan for the previous year. The report concerning reorganization shall specifically detail the extent to which the department has achieved goals stated the previous year with respect to merger and consolidation of functions, abolition of agencies, elimination of job positions, and efficiency and economy in delivery of services. The report shall contain any recommendations with respect to reorganization which may require legislative action under the provisions of this Title. A copy of the report and recommended legislation shall also be submitted by the secretary to the presiding officer of both houses of the legislature. The presiding officer shall refer the report to the appropriate committee having jurisdiction of the subject matter as provided in the rules of the respective house.

1	B. The secretary may:
2	(1)(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided in R.S. 36:801 and 803:
3	(i) Employ, appoint, remove, assign, and promote such personnel as is
4	necessary for the efficient administration of the executive office of the secretary and
5	the performance of its powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities and such other
6	personnel, who are not assigned to an office, as may be necessary for the efficient
7	administration of the department, and for the performance of the responsibilities,
8	powers, duties, and functions of agencies transferred to it;
9	(ii) Employ, assign, and remove all personnel employed for the department
10	on a contractual basis; and
11	(iii) Transfer the personnel of the department as necessary for the efficient
12	administration of the department and its programs.
13	(b) All of the provisions of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph shall be
14	accomplished in accordance with applicable civil service laws, rules, and regulations,
15	and with policies and rules of the Department of Elderly Affairs, and all shall be
16	subject to budgetary control and applicable laws.
17	(2) Appoint, subject to gubernatorial approval, advisory councils, boards,
18	and commissions necessary in the administration of the department, except as
19	otherwise provided by law or by executive order.
20	(3) Accept and use, in accordance with law, gifts, grants, bequests, and
21	endowments for purposes consistent with the responsibilities and functions of the
22	department, and take such actions as are necessary to comply with conditions
23	required for such acceptance.
24	(4) Formulate and promulgate rules of administration for the department
25	relating to employment and management.
26	(5) Do such other things not inconsistent with law as are necessary to
27	perform properly the functions vested in him.

§155. Deputy secretary

There may be a deputy secretary of the department, who shall be appointed by the secretary with consent of the Senate and who shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary at a salary fixed by the secretary, which salary shall not exceed the amount approved for such position by the legislature while in session. The duties and functions of the deputy secretary shall be determined and assigned by the secretary.

If appointed, he shall serve as acting secretary in the absence of the secretary.

Harrison HB No. 352

Abstract: Abolishes the Office of Elderly Affairs and creates the Dept. of Elderly Affairs as its successor and provides that funding for purposes, functions, and programs of the office and the department be appropriated or allocated only to the office or the department. Creation of the department will become effective with the abolition of an existing department or a constitutional amendment authorizing an additional department.

Present law creates the Office of Elderly Affairs as a state agency in the office of the governor. Provides that the office is administered by an executive director, who is recommended for appointment by the La. Executive Board on Aging and appointed by the governor, to serve at his pleasure, subject to Senate confirmation.

Present law provides for the powers and duties of the office, including among others administration of the Older Americans Act and related programs; collecting information and making studies of conditions pertaining to employment, health, financial status, recreation, social adjustment, or other conditions affecting the welfare of the aged; making recommendations to the governor and to the legislature for needed improvements and additional resources to promote the welfare of the aging; coordinating the services of all state agencies serving the elderly and requiring reports from state agencies and institutions;

promulgating rules and regulations necessary to implement provisions for the office and its functions; administration of all federal funds appropriated, allocated, or otherwise made available to the state for services to the elderly, except funds for programs administered by other state departments or agencies; exercising functions relative to nutrition programs for the elderly and handicapped citizens of La., homemaker services, home repair and maintenance services, employment and training services, recreational and transportation services, counseling, information and referral services, specified protective services, and health-related outreach, but excluding a specified transportation program for the elderly and the handicapped administered by the Dept. of Transportation and Development and other such programs and services assigned to other departments of state government.

Present law also provides for the office to review and report on proposals of state agencies and departments for programs and services for the elderly. Provides legislative intent to eventually consolidate programs and services for the elderly in the office except those administered by the Dept. of Health and Hospitals and the Dept. of Children and Family Services on Aug. 15, 1995, and for the office to administer all federal funds for services to the elderly except for programs administered by the Dept. of Health and Hospitals and the Dept. of Children and Family Services on Aug. 15, 1995. Provides for a frail elderly program and a volunteer service credit program in the office.

Proposed law abolishes the Office of Elderly Affairs and creates the Department of Elderly Affairs. Provides legislative intent to eventually consolidate programs and services for the elderly in the department with the same exceptions as provided in present law above. Grants the department all powers and duties of the abolished office and makes it responsible for the programs and functions of the abolished office. Transfers to the department the unfinished business, obligations, property, and employees of the abolished office. Makes the rules of the office effective for the department, until changed by the department. Provides that the office shall be responsible for state functions designed to meet the needs of residents age 60 or older and for planning, monitoring, coordination, and delivery of services to the elderly of the state, including but not limited to coordination of services of all state agencies serving the elderly and requiring reports from them; developing a plan for efficient coordination of functions and services for the elderly and for consolidation of such functions and services within the department with local administration by the parish voluntary councils on aging; administration of the Older Americans Act and related programs; administration of all federal funds appropriated, allocated, or otherwise made available to the state for services to the elderly, except funds for programs administered by other state departments or agencies as specified by the La. Revised Statutes of 1950; exercising functions relative to nutrition programs for the elderly and handicapped citizens of La., homemaker services, home repair and maintenance services, employment and training services, recreational and transportation services, counseling, information and referral services, protective services as provided in R.S. 15:1501 et seq., and health-related outreach, but excluding the transportation program for the elderly and the handicapped administered by the Dept. of Transportation and Development under Section 16(b)(2) of the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964 as amended and other such programs and services assigned to other departments of state government as provided in Title 36 of the La. Revised Statutes of 1950; collection of facts and statistics and making special studies of conditions pertaining to the employment, health, financial status, recreation, social adjustment, or other conditions affecting the welfare of the aged; keeping abreast of the latest developments in aging throughout the nation and interpreting such findings to the public; providing for a mutual exchange of ideas and information on national, state, and local levels; and making recommendations to the governor and to the legislature for needed improvements and additional resources to promote the welfare of the aging in the state.

Proposed law provides that the department shall be composed of the executive office of the secretary, the office of management and finance, and such other offices as shall be created by law.

ENGROSSED HB NO. 352

Proposed law provides for a secretary of the department, to be appointed by the governor with consent of the Senate from recommendations for appointment by the La. Executive Board on Aging, who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor at a salary fixed by the governor not to exceed the amount approved for the position by the legislature in session. Provides for the powers and duties of the secretary, which are similar to the powers and duties granted to the secretaries of other executive branch departments by present law. Also grants the secretary the powers, duties, and functions of the executive director of the abolished Office of Elderly Affairs.

Proposed law authorizes but does not require a deputy secretary for the department, to be appointed by the secretary with Senate consent and to serve at the pleasure of the secretary at a salary set by the secretary not to exceed the amount approved for the position by the legislature in session.

Proposed law provides for an office of management and finance for the department with functions similar to those of the offices of management and finance of other executive branch departments as provided by present law, that is, accounting and budget control, procurement and contract management, data processing, management and program analysis, personnel management, and grants management for the department, all of its offices, and agencies transferred to the department. Provides that the undersecretary shall be responsible for the functions of the office of management and finance and that he shall be appointed by the governor to serve at his pleasure at a salary fixed by the governor not to exceed the amount approved for the position by the legislature in session.

Present law establishes the La. Executive Board on Aging in the office of the governor. Provides that the board may recommend discharge of the executive director of the Office of Elderly Affairs. Provides that the board shall develop and implement policies and procedures pertaining to the office of elderly affairs and its functions, shall approve matters of policy and all rules and regulations promulgated by the board or the office which pertain to elderly affairs and voluntary parish councils on aging, shall review and make recommendations to the director on matters of general importance and relevance to the planning, monitoring, coordination, and delivery of services to the elderly of the state, and shall prepare and submit an annual report to the legislature and to the governor sixty days prior to the legislative session. Provides that the board shall adopt rules governing the functions of the office, including rules that prescribe the policies and procedures followed by the board and the office in the administration of its programs. Provides that the board may delegate any portion of its rights, powers, and duties to the executive director.

Proposed law places the board in the department and provides that the board shall continue to exercise all of the powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities provided or authorized for it by law which are in the nature of policymaking, rulemaking, licensing, regulation, enforcement, or adjudication and also shall continue to exercise all advisory powers, duties, functions, and responsibilities provided by law. Makes the rules of the board effective for the department, until changed by the board.

Proposed law provides that the office of aging and adult services of the Dept. of Health and Hospitals shall have no responsibility or authority for any programs or functions assigned by the La. Revised Statutes of 1950 to the Dept. of Elderly Affairs.

Proposed law changes references in present law from the office to the department and directs the La. State Law Institute to change other similar references.

Proposed law provides that, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any funds appropriated or allocated for any purpose, function, or program that is under the purview, jurisdiction, or authority of the Office of Elderly Affairs, or its successor, the Dept. of Elderly Affairs, by virtue of statutory enactment in the La. Revised Statutes of 1950 shall be appropriated or allocated only to, and available for use only by, the Office of Elderly Affairs or its successor, the Dept. of Elderly Affairs, and shall not be appropriated, allocated, or transferred to any other state department, agency, office, or program. Provides that Title 36 of the La. Revised Statutes of 1950 (Organization of the Executive Branch of State Government), Chapter 7 of Title 46 of the La. Revised Statutes of 1950 (elderly affairs), and the Adult Protective Services Act (R.S. 15:1501 et seq.) shall supersede any other provision of law concerning assignment or allocation of purposes, functions, and programs to departments, agencies, and offices of the executive branch and shall also supersede the provisions of any appropriation or allocation made in contravention of this Section of proposed law. Requires that appropriations and allocations of funds for the purposes of programs affecting the elderly and persons age sixty and over shall be made to departments, agencies, and offices in accordance with the assignment of purposes, programs, and functions by the provisions of Title 36, Title 46, and Title 15 cited above. Provides that any appropriation or allocation of funds for any purpose, function, or program that is assigned to the Office of Elderly Affairs, or its successor, the Department of Elderly Affairs, shall be deemed to have been made to the Office of Elderly Affairs, or its successor, the Department of Elderly Affairs regardless of the entity to which such appropriation or allocation is made, and requires the state treasurer to redirect funds appropriated or allocated to any other department, agency, office, or entity in contravention of this Section to the Office of Elderly Affairs, or its successor, the Dept. of Elderly Affairs.

Effective upon the effective date of the abolition of one or more of the 20 departments in the executive branch of state government or upon the effective date of a constitutional amendment that authorizes creation of an additional executive branch department, whichever such effective date is earlier; except provisions requiring appropriation and allocation of funding of elderly affairs purposes, functions, and programs in accordance with the assignment thereof by the La. Revised Statutes of 1950 is effective July 1, 2013.
