

Expresses the intent of the legislature regarding the allocation and distribution of juvenile detention facility beds and recommends that the Juvenile Justice Reform Act Implementation Commission order a study to evaluate how to ensure adequate access to beds for youth in juvenile detention facilities.

Requires submission of a written report to the commission by January 31, 2014.