AN ACT

To amend and reenact R.S. 33:2419(B)(1) and to enact R.S. 33:2434, relative to civil service; to provide relative to the New Orleans Police Department; to provide relative to benefits for certain employees in certain positions; to provide for definitions; and to provide for related matters.

Notice of intention to introduce this Act has been published.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 33:2419(B)(1) is hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 33:2434 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§2419. Conditional and temporary appointments

* * *

B. Temporary appointments to positions in the classified service may be made for short periods without compliance with the provisions of this Part requiring certification, as follows:

(1)(a) Provisional appointments. When a vacancy is to be filled in a position of a class for which there are no eligibles available for certification, the appointing authority, with the prior approval of the director, may make a provisional appointment of any person whom he deems qualified. Such provisional appointment shall terminate upon the regular filling of the vacancy in any manner authorized under this Part and, in any event, within fifteen working days after a certification from which appointment can be required. A provisional appointment shall never continue for a period in excess of one year unless it is extended by the commission upon the director's certification that eligibles are not available and that it is not possible or practicable to provide such eligibles.

1 (b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, a
 2 classified employee of the New Orleans Police Department who has been
 3 temporarily appointed to a provisional appointment shall not be eligible for any
 4 additional benefits which are to accrue based upon the promotion, or increase
