

Requests the House Committee on Commerce to study the authority of local governmental subdivisions relative to the placement of cable or video service networks, especially within public rights-of-way, and to report its findings to the House of Representatives prior to the convening of the 2014 R.S.