

Existing law requires each crab trap to have a minimum of two escape rings. Existing law describes the escape rings and specifies the size and location of the rings on the trap. Exempts traps placed in Lake Pontchartrain from the requirement for escape rings.

New law adds an exemption for traps which are made of wire mesh 2-5/16ths inch square or larger.

Effective August 1, 2013.

(Amends R.S. 56:332(K))