3 constitution; to place restrictions on the convention and to limit the convention to the 4 consideration and submission of matters related to certain specified fiscal and related 5 subjects; to provide for legislative findings; to fix the time and place for the 12 to such submission; to provide for penalties for violations relating to elections; to 13 require appropriation of funds for the convention and provide with respect to 14 convention funds; to fix the effective date of the new constitution if approved by the 15 electorate; and to provide for related matters.

16 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

17 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that:

18 (A) It has been almost forty years since the Constitution of Louisiana became 19 effective at midnight on December 31, 1974, and during these years the document which 20 constitutes the state's basic law has been amended some one hundred seventy-five times.

1 (B) The need to address a number of key policy areas that require constitutional 2 change has become apparent, including such matters as the state's tax structure and 3 budgetary practices that hamper the state's economic growth and competitiveness as well as 4 the quality of life of Louisiana residents; the dedication of state revenues and the resulting 5 inability of the legislature to allocate resources where needed, particularly for the needs of 6 health care and higher education; the fiscal restraints on local governments that dramatically 7 limit their authority to meet fiscal and budgetary demands; and other matters.

8 (C) The constitution today contains many provisions that restrict the legislature in 9 effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and the document also includes extensive 10 provisions that are so detailed as to be statutory rather than constitutional in nature and, as 11 a result, require further constitutional amendment when any change is needed.

12 (D) A serious analysis and revision of the state constitution is needed if the state is 13 to conduct a genuine examination of the state's critical needs, to undertake an in-depth 14 consideration of reform proposals, and to craft provisions that allow for flexibility and 15 innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present and the future.

16 Section 2. Evaluation and Drafting Committee. (A) The Evaluation and Drafting 17 Committee is hereby created. The purpose of the committee shall be to evaluate and 18 determine if a constitutional convention is needed to address the needs of the state and its 19 people and, if it determines that a convention is needed, to develop and propose a plan for 20 the conduct of an effective constitutional convention, including, subject to the limitations
21 provided by Section 6 of this Act, a draft of a proposed constitution with alternative 22 proposals for provisions addressing significant policy areas.

23 (B)(1) The Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be composed of thirteen 24 members as follows:

26 speaker of the House of Representatives.

31 State Law Institute.

3 concurrence of the chancellor of the law center and the dean of the business college.

5 University College of Business appointed by the joint concurrence of the chancellor of the 6 law center and the dean of the business college.

27 However, if the Evaluation and Drafting Committee determines that a convention is not

31 alternative provision nonsubstantive changes in other provisions of the constitution but only

1 to the extent that they are: (1) germane to the matters enumerated in Subsection (B) of this

27 impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as a delegate to the 28 convention, according to the best of my ability and understanding, and that I will observe 29 and obey the limitation of authority contained in the Act under which this convention has 30 assembled. So help me God."

1 (2) No delegate shall be qualified to serve as such unless and until he has taken and 2 subscribed to the oath in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.

3 (B) After the oath has been administered, the delegates shall proceed to effect the 6 with the provisions of this Act.

7 (2) Elect from among their number a chairman, a vice chairman, and such other

12 (4) Elect a chief clerical officer of the convention who shall not be a delegate and 13 whose duties shall be provided by the rules of procedure for the convention.

14 (5) Take such other actions as they deem necessary to effect a permanent 15 organization of the convention.

16 (C) Prior to the convening of the convention, members of the House of 17 Representatives and Senate staffs as designated by the presiding officers of the legislature 18 shall prepare a draft of rules of procedure for consideration, amendment, and adoption by 19 the convention when it convenes. Such proposed rules shall be based upon the rules of the 20 constitutional convention convened in 1973, except as inconsistent with the provisions of 21 this Act. The rules of procedure adopted by the convention shall be subject to later change 22 as the delegates shall provide therein. No delegate shall be allowed to vote by proxy and the 23 rules shall so provide. No committee of the convention, including the executive committee,

27 Section 8. Staff; budget; committees. (A) As soon as possible after the members 28 of the executive committee are elected, the executive committee shall employ a research 29 director, research assistants, and secretarial and clerical personnel in accordance with the 30 provisions of Subsection B of this Section and may also employ such other professional,

1 research, technical, and clerical employees as the committee deems necessary.

2 Compensation of staff personnel shall be established by the executive committee.

3 (B) The staff of the constitutional convention may include but shall not be limited 4 to the following who shall not be delegates to the convention:

8 determined by the committee.

9 (3) Personnel provided by the Louisiana State University, Tulane University, Loyola 10 University, and Southern University law schools from the faculty as requested by the 11 committee.

12 (4) Such other staff as the executive committee deems necessary.

13 (C) The secretary of state shall advertise for applicants for the staff of the 14 constitutional convention and shall receive such applications for staff service prior to the 18 (D) As soon as possible after the members of the executive committee are elected, 19 the executive committee shall prepare a budget of anticipated expenses of the convention, 20 including staff salaries and other necessary expenditures, based on the amount of the 21 appropriation for the convention and any other funds available for expenditure.

22 (E) The executive committee may create and establish such substantive and 23 procedural committees as it deems appropriate. The chairman of the convention shall 24 appoint the chairman, vice chairman, and the membership of each such committee.

6 and services from public or private sources for the purpose of accomplishing its task of 7 framing a new constitution. Any such grants, monies, facilities, services, and donations, as 8 well as the names of the donors thereof, shall be recorded in the record of the proceedings 9 of the convention, and such records shall be open to inspection by any person.

10 (H) The final draft of the proposed constitution shall be completed no later than June 11 30, 2016.

12 Section 9. Compensation of delegates. The delegates to the convention shall receive 13 a per diem for each day of actual attendance at meetings of the convention or of committees 14 thereof in the amount provided for members of the legislature for attendance at legislative 15 sessions, but no delegate shall be paid a per diem after June 30, 2016, or the date the final 16 draft is completed, whichever is earlier. No delegate may accept any other compensation
17 from any source for work performed as a delegate to the convention. However, if a delegate 18 is engaged in regular, bona fide employment, should the delegate's employer choose to 19 continue to pay the usual compensation while the delegate is engaged in the work of the 20 convention, such delegate may accept that compensation, notwithstanding any provision of 21 law to the contrary.

22 Section 10. Appropriation; use of funds. (A) Any appropriation for the expenses 23 of the convention shall be used solely to defray the necessary expenses of the constitutional 24 convention for which provision is made in this Act, including the payment of per diem of 25 delegates, salaries, and expenses of necessary employees, supplies, materials, equipment, 26 printing, and reproduction of materials, and all other necessary expenses incurred in 27 connection with the convention and its work.

28 (B) Any funds appropriated for the convention shall be withdrawn from the state 29 treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the chairman of the convention, and all 30 checks for the disbursement of funds shall be signed by the chairman and the vice chairman

2 designated by the convention.

3 (C) The legislature shall make adequate appropriations to the convention for so long 4 as the convention remains in existence and for so long thereafter as is necessary to assure 5 the payment of all expenses incurred in connection with the work of the convention. The 6 convention shall not be deemed to be a budget unit of the state and therefore shall not be 7 subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.
8 The financial books and records of the convention, however, shall be subject to audit by the 9 legislative auditor.

10 Section 11. Submission of proposed constitution; election. (A) Upon completion 11 of its work, and not later than July 5, 2016, and subject to the limitations provided in Section 12 6 of this Act, the convention shall submit a proposed draft of a new constitution for the state
13 to the governor. At the discretion of the convention, but subject to the limitations provided 14 in Section 6 of this Act, the convention may also propose and submit at the same time such 15 alternative provisions as it deems appropriate. The constitution as drafted by the convention, 16 together with any alternative provisions proposed for submission, shall be submitted to the 17 people for adoption or rejection. Within fifteen days after submission of the proposed draft 18 to the governor, he shall by proclamation call an election to be held at the same time as the 19 presidential election in 2016 for the purpose of submitting the proposed draft and any 20 alternative provisions to the people for adoption or rejection.

21 (B) The election shall be held and the results shall be promulgated in accordance 22 with the Louisiana Election Code. All electors duly qualified to vote in the state at the time 23 of the election shall be entitled to vote without regard to party affiliation in their respective 24 precincts on the proposition for or against adoption of the revision and on the question or 25 questions of adoption of such alternative provisions as may be proposed by the convention.
26 The costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the Louisiana Election Code for 27 elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot.

28 (C) The convention may submit to the electors of the state the proposal of 29 acceptance or rejection of the constitution and any alternative provisions in such form and 30 manner as it may determine and may direct the proper election officials to take the necessary 31 steps to effectuate such determination of the convention in presenting the proposed

1 constitution and any alternative provisions to the electors. Adoption of the constitution and 2 of any such alternative provisions shall require the favorable vote of a majority of the 3 electors voting on the respective proposition.

4 (D) Upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state, if the 5 constitution is ratified and adopted by the people in the election for which provision is made
6 in this Section, the governor shall proclaim the constitution, including such alternative 7 provisions as are adopted by the people at the election, to be the Constitution of Louisiana.
8 The constitution, including such alternative provisions as are so adopted, shall become 9 effective at midnight on December 31, 2016, except as otherwise provided in the constitution 10 adopted or in any such alternative provisions adopted.

11 Section 12. If any provision or application of this Act that authorizes the convention 12 to consider only certain subject matters and certain provisions of the constitution and 13 prohibits the convention from considering other subject matters and provisions is held 14 invalid, including without limitation any provision of Section 6 of this Act, then this entire 15 Act shall be invalid and of no effect. However, if any other provision of this Act or the 16 application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or 17 applications of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

18 Section 13. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 19 signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature 20 by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 21 vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 22 effective on the day following such approval.

HB No. 292

Abstract: Calls a limited constitutional convention preceded by study by an Evaluation and Drafting Committee to determine if a convention is needed. If the committee determines a convention is needed, provides that its report include a convention plan, including a proposed constitution. Calls convention to convene on Jan. 4, 2016, to be composed of 123 delegates, 105 elected from representative districts and 18 appointed.
