
The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Ashley Menou.

DIGEST

Amedee (SB 134)

Present law provides that the Board of Ethics use certified mail to send notices of delinquency.

Proposed law allows the Board of Ethics to use a private process server to send notices of delinquency.

Present law provides that notices of hearings and orders issued by the Ethics Adjudicatory Board are to be sent in writing.

Proposed law provides that notices of hearings and orders issued by the Ethics Adjudicatory Board are to be sent via certified mail.

Present law provides no maximum fee for late filing of financial disclosure reports, (Tier 1).

Proposed law sets the maximum fee for late filing personal financial disclosure reports with a $500 a day fee at $12,500.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 42:1124.4(A)(1) and 1141.5(C); adds R.S. 42:1157(A)(4)(f))