HB No. 879

Abstract: Changes the date for filing annual registration statements for insurance holding companies to April 30; exempts insurers with annual direct written and assumed premiums of less than $500 million from filing an annual enterprise risk report; and exempts documents provided to the Dept. of Insurance in the course of an examination or investigation from the Public Records Law.

Present law requires insurance holding companies to file annual registration statements by April 1.

Proposed law requires insurance holding companies to file annual registration statements by April 30.

Present law requires every insurance holding company to file an annual enterprise report.

Proposed law provides an exemption to filing an annual enterprise report for insurers with annual direct written and assumed premiums of less than $500 million.

Proposed law provides an exemption to the Public Records Law for documents and other information obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner of insurance in the course of an examination or investigation.
