REAPPORTIONMENT OR INCREASE GF EX See Note Page 1 of 2
(Constitutional Amendment) Provides for a redistricting commission to propose 3 alternative plans for each public body to be redistricted by the legislature and requires the legislature to enact one of such plans without amendment. The proposed constitutional amendment changes the terminology in the present constitution to reflect a change from reapportionment and reapportionment to redistrict and redistricting. The constitutional amendment further provides for the establishment of a Redistricting Commission in each year the federal decennial census is taken to propose 3 alternative plans for redistricting of each branch of state government whose members are elected from districts. The commission shall be composed of 13 members and shall receive the same per diem and travel allowance as the members of the legislature. It further authorizes the legislature to provide by law relative to the Redistricting Commission and procedures to implement the proposed constitutional amendment, including but not limited to expenses and staffing for the commission. The commission shall conduct at least one public meeting within each congressional district (6) of the state; and utilize the assistance of appropriate staff of the legislature. If the commission fails to submit 3 plans or the legislature fails to enact one of such plans, the LA Supreme Court, upon petition of any elector, shall redistrict the legislature or other (Continued on page 2)

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation will result in an indeterminable increase in SGF expenditures in FY 20 which is beyond the 5-year range reflected in the table above. The legislation provides for the commission to conduct at least one public meeting within each congressional district (6) of the state, and to utilize the assistance of appropriate staff of the legislature. Additionally, each member of the commission shall receive the same per diem and travel allowance as members of the legislature.

According to the Secretary of State, there will be no additional election costs (inclusive of ballot printing and publication of proposed constitutional amendment in the 64 parish journals) since the proposed constitutional amendment will be placed on the ballots for the regularly scheduled statewide election date (11/4/2014).

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
