EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. This bill may impact contractors doing business with the state. The legislation provides that as a condition of being a contractor of the state, the contractor is prohibited from inquiring about a job applicant's criminal history on a job application and further requires that the contract shall contain a sworn affidavit by the contractor indicating the contractor's pledge to not inquire about a job applicant's criminal history.

The requirements of the Division of Administration (DOA) are related to notifying state agencies of this law and the ability to draft and adopt rules and regulations. There is no anticipated direct material effect on DOA expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
