

1 20(A), the homestead exemption shall not extend to such additional ad valorem
2 taxes. ~~Provided, however, that the~~ The additional revenues generated by these fire 3 and police millages shall not displace, replace, or supplant funding by the city of 4 New Orleans for fire and police protection for calendar year ~~1990~~ 2013 nor shall the 5 level of funding for such purposes by the city for that calendar year be decreased
6 below such level in any subsequent calendar year ~~hereafter~~. In the event of either of 7 the above, the authorization for such fire and police millages herein shall be null,
8 void, and of no effect. This provision shall mean that no appropriation for any 9 calendar year from such additional revenues shall be made for any purpose for which 10 a city appropriation was made in the previous year unless the total appropriations for 11 that calendar year from the city for such purpose exceed city appropriations for the 12 previous year. This provision shall in no way limit city appropriations in excess of 13 the minimum amounts herein established.

14 Section 2. Be it further resolved that this proposed amendment shall be submitted

HB No. 111

Abstract: Authorizes the governing authority of Orleans Parish to levy an additional ad valorem tax for fire protection and an additional ad valorem tax for police protection, each not to exceed an additional one mill.

Present constitution authorizes the governing authority of a parish to levy an ad valorem tax for general purposes not to exceed four mills. However, for Orleans Parish the maximum is seven mills. Proposed constitutional amendment retains present constitution.

Present constitution, in addition to any other millage otherwise authorized, authorizes the governing authority of Orleans Parish to levy an additional ad valorem tax for fire protection not to exceed five mills, and an additional ad valorem tax for police protection not to exceed five mills.

Proposed constitutional amendment increases the millages that Orleans Parish is authorized to levy for such purposes to six mills for fire protection and six mills for police protection. Also eliminates the provision providing that the millage rates for such additional ad valorem taxes may not be increased. Otherwise retains present constitution.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held November 4, 2014.
