Provides that within 180 days after the three years prescribed in proposed law, if no claim has been filed in accordance with proposed law for such U. S. savings bonds, the administrator shall commence a civil action in the 19th JDC for a determination that such savings bonds shall escheat to the state. - (2) The affiant or declarant has made a reasonable but unsuccessful effort to ascertain the names and residences of any defendants sought to be served as unknown parties and the specific efforts made to ascertain the names and residences.
- (3) The party seeking service by publication is unable to obtain service of summons on the defendants in this state.
- (4) The case is one in which the party with due diligence is unable to serve summons on the defendant in this state and either:
 - (a) The case relates to or involves real or personal property in this state, if any defendant has or claims a lien or interest, vested or contingent, in the property.
 - (b) In which the relief demanded consists wholly or partly in excluding the defendant from any interest in the property.

Provides that if no person shall file a claim or appear at the hearing to substantiate a claim or where the court determines that a claimant is not entitled to the property claimed by such claimant, then the court, if satisfied by evidence that the administrator has substantially complied with state law, shall enter a judgment that the subject U. S. savings bonds have escheated to the state, and all property rights and legal title to and ownership of such U.S. savings bonds or proceeds from such bonds, including all rights, powers, and privileges of survivorship of any owner, co-owner or beneficiary, shall vest solely in the state.

Provides that the administrator shall redeem such U. S. savings bonds escheated to the state and the proceeds from such redemption shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund. Requires that the administrator not deposit the proceeds from the redemption of the U. S. savings bonds in the Bond Security and Redemption Fund nor in the Unclaimed Property Leverage Fund.

Provides that any person making a claim for U. S. savings bonds escheated to the state, or for the proceeds from such bonds, may file a claim in accordance with present law. Provides that upon providing sufficient proof of the validity of such person's claim, the administrator may, in his sole discretion, pay such claim in accordance with present law.
