EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed constitutional amendment increases the number of authorized executive branch departments from 20 to 21. To the extent this amendment is adopted and an additional executive branch department is created in the future, there may be an increase in state general fund expenditures.

On November 4, 2014, voters will consider the proposed constitutional amendment at the statewide election. The Secretary of State may incur minimal ballot printing costs associated with this measure. However, as a regular practice, the Secretary of State routinely budgets for up to 10 constitutional amendments for the fall statewide elections.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
