Present law provides that any person who unlawfully takes merchandise from a merchant's premises shall be liable to the merchant for the retail value of the merchandise taken, if not recovered in merchantable condition, plus damages of not less than $50 nor more than $500.

Present law also provides that its provisions shall not be construed to prohibit or limit any other cause of action which a merchant may have against a person who unlawfully takes merchandise from the merchant's premises.

Proposed law retains present law and further provides that any damages awarded in a civil action shall be reduced by the amount recovered from the offender as restitution to the merchant as a condition of sentence in the criminal case.
