17 to and do not preclude any remedy otherwise available under law.

18 E. Any person who is found liable pursuant to the provisions of this Section 19 in an action brought by the attorney general shall be liable to the attorney general for 20 all costs, expenses, and fees related to investigations and proceedings associated with 21 the violation, including attorney fees. An action to recover costs, expenses, fees, and 22 attorney fees shall be ancillary to, and shall be brought and heard in the same court
23 as the civil action brought pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter.

24 F. The attorney general may examine, or cause to be examined by agents 25 thereof, without notice, the conditions and affairs of any person subject to the 26 provisions of this Section. In connection with an examination, the attorney general 27 or his agents may examine under oath any person subject to the provisions of this 28 Section and any director, officer, employee, customer, creditor, manager, member, 29 partner, or stockholder of any person subject to the provisions of this Section 30 concerning the affairs and business of the person. The person shall pay the 31 reasonable costs of the examination as determined by the attorney general which 32 shall be deposited in the state treasury for credit to the office of the attorney general.
33 Failure to pay the examination fee within 30 days after receipt of demand from the 34 attorney general shall automatically suspend the right of the person to do business
35 in Louisiana until the fee is paid."
