HB No. 616

Abstract: Provides a legal remedy in cases wherein a custodian fails to act within a specified amount of time on a written or electronic request for a public record.

Present law establishes the right of any person to examine a public record and authorizes individuals who appear in person to inspect, copy, or reproduce any public record and further authorizes written requests to obtain a copy or reproduction of any public record.

Present law provides that any person who has been denied the right to inspect or copy a record under present law, either by a final determination of the custodian or by the passage of five days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays, from the date of his request without receiving a final determination in writing by the custodian, may institute proceedings for the issuance of a writ of mandamus, injunctive or declaratory relief, together with attorney fees, costs and damages, in the district court for the parish in which the office of the custodian is located.

Proposed law retains present law. Specifies that the right to institute an enforcement action applies to written and electronic requests in addition to requests made in person. Provides that the right to institute an enforcement action does not apply if the requestor within five days of the date of the request receives an estimate of the time necessary for examination or review of a burdensome records request. Specifies that proposed law applies to denial of the right to obtain a copy or reproduction of a record in addition to denial of the right to inspect or copy a record.

Present law provides that if a person seeking the right to inspect or to receive a copy of a public record prevails in such suit, he shall be awarded reasonable attorney fees and other costs of litigation. Provides that if such person prevails in part, the court may in its discretion award him reasonable attorney's fees or an appropriate portion thereof.

Proposed law retains present law. Specifies that attorney fees may be awarded to a person seeking the right to copy or reproduce a public record or to obtain a copy or reproduction of a public record in addition to a person seeking the right to inspect or receive a copy of a public record.
