DIGEST

Mills (SB 66)

Present law provides that the La. Real Estate Commission may censure a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder or conditionally or unconditionally suspend or revoke any license, registration, or certificate issued under the La. Real Estate License Law, levy fines or impose civil penalties not to exceed $5,000, or impose continuing education requirements on licensees, registrants, or certificate holders if, in the opinion of the commission, a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is performing or attempting to perform or has performed or has attempted to perform certain acts.

Proposed law provides that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall be subject to the provisions of present law if such licensee, registrant, or certificate holder engages in any effort, including referral or recommendation of a specific home inspector, with the intent to deceive or defraud.

Present law provides for the regulation of home inspectors.

Present law provides that a licensed home inspector shall provide a written report of the home inspector to each person for whom the inspector performs a home inspection for compensation within five calendar days from the date of the inspection.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a licensed home inspector shall include in his written report of the home inspection the presence of suspected mold or microbial growth if during the course of inspecting the systems and components of the structure in accordance with the provisions of present law and board rules and regulations, the licensed home inspector discovers visually observable evidence of suspected mold or microbial growth.

Effective August 1, 2014.
