Provides relative to the crime of failure to register as a sex offender or child predator

Present law provides that a person who fails to register, periodically renew and update registration, provide proof of residence or notification of change of address or other registration information, or provide community notification, and person who knowingly provides false information to a law enforcement agency, shall, upon first conviction, be fined not more than $1,000 and imprisoned with hard labor for not less than two years nor mote than ten years without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence.

Proposed law expands this crime and provides that it shall also be considered failure to register and notify as a sex offender or child predator if the offender does any of the following: (1) Fails to timely register. (2) Fails to timely provide any information required by present law. (3) Fails to timely renew and update registration information as required by present law. (4) Fails to timely provide proof of residence or notification of change of address or other registration information.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in a minimal impact, if any, on state general fund expenditures if a defendant is convicted of failure to register and notify as a sex offender or child predator if the offender fails to register, provide any information required by present law, renew and update registration information, and provide proof of residence or notification of change of address or other information in a timely manner. The exact fiscal impact of the passage of this legislation is indeterminable, since it is not known how many individuals will be convicted of this crime. However, any offender sentenced to the custody of the Department of Public Safety and Corrections increases expenditures by $24.39 per day per offender in local facilities. To the extent that offenders are sentenced and housed in state facilities, the cost per day per offender is $52.51.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on state revenues as a result of this measure. However, any revenue generated through the imposition of fines as a result of conviction would accrue to local government entities.
